

Mephisto Bridge

Living all the fantasies – heroes and heroic deeds
Hiding in the shadows – you don't know me
Living all the memories – other people other places
There's a smile from the other side
From a man in a mask with far too much to hide

You can lean on me my friend
You can trust me to defend you

Living at the edge of the world
A sight half seen, a sound half heard
Hiding in the shadows – you don't know me
You can choose one side or the other
The path you take will be the one forever
Follow me, follow me

Beyond this line is an alien side
A place that exists in your mind
There is no light and there is no guide
A place that exists in your mind

Mephisto Bridge – This is a gateway
Opposite fates and intricate faces
Which one is mine?
Which is my life?
Please show me!

This way is dark, and this way is light
But stand in the centre and both sides are right
This is a place you will finally find
It's always been there in your mind

Mephisto Bridge – it lies in the middle
A way to salvation? A path to the devil?
Which is my side? Which is my life? Please show me!
Mephisto Bridge – It crosses the chasm
There is the dream and there is the master
Which is my side? Which is my life? Please show me!

It's all wrong now
I don't know anymore – I don't care anymore
Why can't you show me?
Makes no sense now
I can't see anymore – I can't feel anymore
Why can't you show me?
